Petition From the Ohio Legislature Regarding the Payne Case-In the House.

WASHINGTON, May 11 .- Senate -Senator Hoar presented a memorial of the Republican Central Committee of the State of Ohio, charging that the elec-tion of the Hon. Henry B. Payne to the United States Senate was secured by bribery, fraud and corruption, and requesting that the Senate investigate matter. Referred to the Committee on Privileges and E'ections.

A number of petitions were presented and referred, praying Congress to enact legislation against oleomar-

After routine morning business the interstate commerce bill was taken up and its consideration resumed.

Senator Sewell's amendment, requiring ten days' notice of reduction of rates, was withdrawn. An amendment offered by Senator Wison [Ia.], which would punish mea who knowingly ask for or receive reduction of rates was after a short debate rejected. Senator Morgan formally offered his amendment, heretofcre published, to punish by fice and imprisonment men who conspire to stop or interfere with the running of trains engaged in interstate commerce. Senator Vest, Senator Teller and Senator Maxey contended that this was a matter for the States to deal

Senator Cullom feared the amend ment would embarrass and perhaps imperil the passage of the bill, and so he opposed Senator Morgan's amend-

On motion of Senator Hoar the amendment was laid on the table— year, 49; nays, 3. (The negative voles were those of Senators Dolph, Edmunds and Morgan.)
Senator Brown offered an amendment providing for the punishment of perrons injuring the property of rail-coad companies, tracks, bridges, cars, etc. The amendment would make it a felony to maliciously injure such property, and if death resulted from the injury then the offense should constitute murder. The amendment was laid on the table. Considerable debate then arose on an amendment of Senator, Plumb, offered for him in his absence by Senator Ingalls. It is the amendment of which Sepator Plumb some time since gave notice, prohibiting members of Congress, officials of the government and their families from accepting free passes, and prohibiting rainroad com-panies from giving them such passes, or reduced rates.

To this Senator Teller offered an amendment prohibiting any of the subsidized toads from giving free

After debate, in which the amendment was advocated by Senator Ed-munds and oppdied by Senators Logen and Ingalls, it was, on motion of Senator Logan, hid on the table.

Some discussion arose as to the effect of the bill ontlergymen, and, to avoid doubt, Senstor Brown secured an amendment providing that the restric tions of the bill as to reduced fares should not apply to ministers of re-

Senator Edmunds secured a similar amendment as to sgricultural conventions and army society meetings.

Senator Brown moved to make the bill applicable to river routes as well as to railroads, saying that the Mississippi river steamboats practiced all worst discriminations complained of as against the railroads, and he saw no resson why the boats engaged on that river should be exempt from the restrictions sttempted to be put on railroads. The amendment was rejected.

An amendment offered by Senator Spooner was agreed to, applying the word "unlawful" to the discriminations condemned by the bill, so as to bring breaches of its provisions within the technical meaning of the penal

A modification of the long and short haul clause was suggested by Senator Edmunds. The modification was to restore to the clause the words "and from the same point of departure," which had been struck out by the adoption of Senator Camden's amendmen, but to add immediately to the "or the same point of ar-

To relieve the action of our govern ment from any ambiguity of legislative expression, or the executive from any uncertainty as to his line of duty in relation to the award, he suggests the attention of Congress be earnestly invited to the present status of the claims, and the duty of the executive to carry out the terms of the existing treaty in case the two houses adjourn without further action.

OUR SUPREME COURT.

CONTRAST BETWEEN THOSE OF ALABAMA AND GEORGIA,

Proving Plainly the Necessity for Clean Sweep—The Interests of the People Demand It.

Nashville Banner: The Supreme Court of Alabams, like the court of Georgia, has cleared up its docket. In Tenne see the court is four or five years behind with its docket. Yet there has been as much litigation in Georgia and Alabama as there has been in Tennessee. What makes the difference? The courts in Georgia and Alabama have gone chead and vigor-ou-ly attended to the work, while the Tennessee court has droned along, wasting a day in every week reading uselessiy long opinions. The more you think of it the more intolerable becomes the thought of retaining the old court in office to drone away to udges who can give some life and efficiency to the Supreme Court of Tennessee. The Supreme Court of Georgia has just adjourned, having disposed of the whole docket and leaving no causes unheard. There are only three Su-preme Judges in Georgia, and they hold two terms each year, attend to the large business brought before them and have a good vacation for Instead of droning away a few rest. short hours each day writing long and watery opinions and idling the bulk of the time, they go to work like men who mean business. They rule attorneys down to a brief statement and explanation of the points at issue, make prompt decisions and furnish st the time, as required by the Georgia law, short head-notes or abstracts of their opinions, and reserve the writing of extended opinions in ca es of importance until their vacation scaron, wken these opinions are concisely

Here in Tennessee we have five Supreme Judges who are so far behind in their work you could cover them out of eight with the documents that have grown musty awaiting their attention. Notwithstanding the fact that our Supreme Bench, has had the assistance of Arbitration and Referee Courts, which have cost the State thousands of dollars, the docket is still piled mountain high, and litigants are compelled to wait years and years before their cases can be heard. court, with all this accumulation of business on hand, has been sitting but three hours a day, and plodding along in its slow and old fogy way, while the interests of the people are softering on account of outrageous delay. The contrast between our court and the Georgia court is marked. The Georgia court has as much business as our court, yet, with two judges has, it keeps the docket clean. In other words, the Georgia court works and a tends promptly and efficiently to business, while our slow-moving cours takes its own sweet time and convenience, while the public must wait and wait. The Tennessee court has got in'o a rut in which it will stay so long as the present judges remain on the bench. We must have a more vigor-ous court. The purple are tired of un-ending de'ay in business that would be promptly dispatched if we had a new and vigorous bench

We may add that the prompt dis-patch of business by the Georgia court, instead of resulting in a depreciation of the weight of the opinions of that court has enhanced them. The opinions of the Georgia court are more highly estremed and have greater w eight by far than the opinions of our Tennessee court. In the courts of other States the decisions of the Supreme Court of Georgia are quoted ten times oftener than are the decisions of the Suprame Court of Tennessee. The amentable fact is, the Tennessee cou t stands at about the bottom of the lat. Termesse lawyers who are called to practice in courts in other States are mortified to find that the opinions of our court have so little weight. One case is instanced in an Onio court. A case is instanced in an Onio court. A lawyer, to sustain an argument, cited the opinion of the Supreme Court of Tennessee. The opposing attorney dismissed the opinion with a significant smile, and said he would not wrate the in dismaniput that opinion. t'me in discussing that opinion as au-treaty. The reading of the report practically consumed all the time the Queen Victoria's Second Visit to Liverpool-Press Comments on Mr. Gladstone's Speech.

ATHESS, May 11.—M. Delyiannis, the retiring Premier, refuses to con-voke the Greek Chamber of Deputies to take action on the crisis. Yester-day evening he explained to his adherents the revsons which prompted him and his Ministers to resign. He said that nothing but wer could ef-face the humiliation to which Greece had been subjected, but that war was impossible without unanimity among the Greeks. The agitation carried on by the opposition and the indifference of the King paralyzed the efforts of patriotism; therefore the government had resigned in the interests of the country, convinced that the powers report on the Logan bill for the entertained enmity towards his government.

COMTE DE MOUY, the French Minister to Greece, has called upon his government for instructions concerning his conduct in the present anomalous condition of affairs in Greece. The powers, after baving ordered their fleets to enforce a blockade against Greek ports, and notifying Greece of the establishment of a blockade, bave been compelled by stormy weather to withdraw their ships to Suda Bay, Crete, in Turkish territory, and there is consequently no state of blockade anywhere in Greece. The Greeks are holding mass mestings all over their country to protest against the decree of blockade issued by the powers, and to appeal to the people of foreign countries for sympa-thy against the "tyranny of the pow-

the Greek army. MR. GLADSTONE'S SPEECH. Press Comments on the Premier's Latest Effort.

London, May 11 .- The Pall Mall Gazette this afternoon says that Mr. Gladstone's speech last night made bad worse and sealed the fate of the home rule bill. It adds that Mr. Henry Labouchers, who had acted as intermediator between Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Chamberlain, had informed the latter that the Premier was willing to make adequate concessions in order to secure the support of the Radical leader and his adherents. The speech did not beer out th's promise in the way it had been seeped by Mr. Chamber-lain, and the Gazette ays to was actonished and disgos ed, and openly de-clared in the lobby of the House of Commons that he had been misled and would now opprese Mr. Gladstone's bill "tooth and rail."

The St Jame's Gazette says there is no longer any doubt that the "durantion bid" (Mr. Gladst me's home rule measure) has collapsed.

The Globe asserts that there is less chance now than ever of the home rule bill passing its second reading. The Echo declares that Mr stone's bill is virtually documed.

The Lord Mayor says the Weather is almost ex cily like that which afflicted the city on the occasion of the Queen's former visit. A grand royal pageant had been arranged with which to open the show, but it is feared the weather will make it impossible to have the parade. The Queen will remain over night in Liverpool as the guest of the city. This will be the first time a British monarch has ever been the guest of the Liverpool corporation, and the citizens have adopted every n eans within their power to make the occasion memorable by the loyalty and magnificence of its celebration.

It affords "e pleasure to give you this report of the cure of our little grandchild by your Curiousa Rayantas. When six months old his left hand began to swell and had every appearance of a large boil. We poultieed it, but all to no purpose. About five months after it became a furning sore. Soon other sores formed. He then had two of them on each hand, and as his blood became more and more impure it took less time for them to break out. A sore came on the chin, beneath the under lip, which was very offensive. His head was one solid scab, discharging a great deal. This was his condition at twenty-two months old, when I undertook the care of him, his mother having died when he was a little more than a year old, of consumption secrofuls of course). He could walk a little, but could not get up if he fell down, and could not move when in bed, having no use of his hands. I immediately commesced with the Curicuma Ramanisms, using the Curicuma and Curicuma Roar freely, and when he had taken one bother of these freely, and when he had taken one bother of these freely, and when he had taken one bother of these five deep ones just before healing, which would finally grow loose and were taken out; then they would heal rapidly. One of these ugly bone formations i preserved. After taking a dozen and a half hotles he was completely cured, and is new, at the age of six years, a strong and healthy child. The sears on his hands must leave reason he hands must leave to the search he would never be able to use them. All that physicians did for him did him no good. All who saw the child before using the Curicuma Remotes and see the child now consider it a wonderful cure. If the above facts are of any ure to you, you are at liberty to use them.
